

McDonald Hopkins welcomes Jacob Debus to Business Department

Jacob Debus | Tuesday, August 23, 2022

CLEVELAND — Jacob Debus has joined McDonald Hopkins LLC in Cleveland as an associate in the Business Department.

As part of the firm's Mergers and Acquisitions team, his practice includes advising private equity funds and private companies in various types of transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, and lending matters. Debus has additional experience providing general business counseling and legal guidance to a wide variety of clients of various structures, including sole proprietorships, partnerships, limited liability companies, and corporations.

Debus earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Cincinnati College of Law. He graduated from Miami University with a Bachelor of Science in interdisciplinary business management – legal studies.

Jacob Debus