

Dave Kall article featured in Crain's Cleveland Business

| Monday, November 7, 2022

McDonald Hopkins Cleveland Managing Member David Kall's article "State tax incentives bring in big manufacturers — can your business benefit?" was featured in a recent edition of Crain's Cleveland Business.

In the article, Kall outlines how Ohio businesses do not have to be a global conglomerate to benefit from state tax incentives. He notes that careful planning and analysis could result in tax incentives for your business.

To learn more from Kall about how your business can benefit from state tax and economic incentives, click here to read his article in Crain's Cleveland Business.