

Jack Meadows

Associate

Cleveland

P: 216.430.2053

Practice Focus

- Commercial finance
- Business counseling

Jack Meadows is an associate in the firm's Business Department with a focus on commercial finance.

Jack previously served as a corporate associate at a law firm in Columbus. He advised businesses in all aspects of the Paycheck Protection Program, including eligibility, covered costs and forgiveness. Jack has experience in preparing and negotiating a variety of agreements, including leases, purchase and sale agreements, credit agreements, security agreements, and non-disclosure agreements. He has written articles for the legal research service Westlaw. He co-authored an article that won “Best Legal Analysis” from the LexBlog Excellence Awards.

Jack earned his J.D. from The Ohio State University College of Law, graduating cum laude. While in law school, he served as staff editor and managing editor of the Ohio State Law Journal and received an Outstanding Managing Editor Award.

Jack completed a B.S. in business administration with a specialization in finance and a minor in English from The Ohio State University, where he graduated cum laude.

Admissions - State

- Ohio

Education

- The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law
- The Ohio State University

News

- Jack Meadows joins McDonald Hopkins Business Department in Cleveland

