

Kate A. Jarrett

Associate

Detroit

P: 248.220.1336

Practice Focus

- Data privacy and cybersecurity
- Breach coaching and incident notification
- Regulatory investigations and government response
- Proactive measures and breach prevention

Kate is an Associate in the Litigation Department at McDonald Hopkins and part of the firm's national Data Privacy and Cybersecurity team. She has experience advising and coaching a variety of businesses, such as health systems, professional service firms, and educational institutions, on data privacy and cybersecurity matters, including responding to government inquiries and investigations, and obligations with respect to state data privacy laws, HIPAA, GLBA, FERPA and state insurance departments. Additionally, Kate has experience assisting clients with data privacy and cybersecurity litigation and cybersecurity class actions.

Kate earned her JD from DePaul University College of Law, where she graduated magna cum laude and was named to the Order of the Coif. She earned a Bachelor of Arts in political science from Boston University.

Admissions - State

- Michigan

Education

- DePaul University College of Law
- Boston University

Professional Membership

- Macomb Bar Association

Blog Posts

- Arizona amends data privacy statute to include notice to Department of Homeland Security
- 2021's noteworthy changes to state breach notification laws

News

- Law 360 article by Christine Czuprynski and Kate Jarrett: "New Ariz. Cyberattack Info Sharing May Be Worth The Burden"
- McDonald Hopkins welcomes Kate A. Jarrett to Litigation Department and Data Privacy and Cybersecurity Team

Events

- So You've Backed Up Your Data: Can You Survive A Disaster? | Thursday, May 26, 2022
- Cybersecurity Workshop | Wednesday, January 26, 2022